

PLAYWRITING #2: Character
Writing Prompt #6

Create a visual image of your character. This can be a drawing, a collage, a mood board, or a collection of images found on the internet. It doesn't have to be an exact representation of the character – use your imagination to create an image that speaks to you about who your character is.