

Set Construction Apprentice

About Dorset Theatre Festival:

Dorset Theatre Festival, an acclaimed AEA summer company in Vermont, offers opportunities for in-depth professional experience in a small, selective, and supportive summer apprenticeship program. Apprentices work directly with professional theatre staff and renowned actors, directors, playwrights, and designers, many with Broadway credits, in our charming, well-equipped theatre in a quintessential rural Vermont setting.

Dorset Theatre Festival offers all apprentices opportunities to learn from theatre professionals and expand their networks through program-wide apprentice seminars and outings.

Additionally, the Festival fosters a collaborative environment and provides holistic learning opportunities by requiring all apprentices to assist in changeovers between productions.

About the Position:

Dorset Theatre Festival seeks a Set Construction Apprentice for their 2018 summer season. Employment dates run early June through early September.

Working under the direction of the Master Carpenter, the Set Construction Apprentice is responsible for safely working as a team member on the build, installation, rigging, and strike of sets for each of the 4 season shows.

Two years of college (or equivalent experience) required. Scene shop experience and knowledge of safety and operation protocols is required. Ideal candidate will have strong technical skills and be able to work well as part of a team.

Compensation and Perks:

- $150 per week stipend
- Provided double-occupancy rooming
- Regular time off to enjoy the spectacular Vermont summer season
- Opportunity to do more than “make the coffee”: as a Dorset Theatre Festival Apprentice, you will be a crucial part of your department, learning from and working with top-notch theatre professionals.
